2. Employer Is a Sponsoring Organization or Joint Committee

Employer acknowledges being a sponsoring organization or joint committee offering, conducting, supervising or giving to Apprentices supplemental instruction.

3. Employer Desires Voluntarily to Secure Coverage for Apprentices

Employer recognizes workers' compensation coverage of its Apprentices is not mandatory under Ohio law unless Apprentices are employees of Employer as defined under Section 4123.01 of the Code.

3.1 Employer elects to secure workers' compensation coverage under Ohio law for its Apprentices for supplemental instruction offered by Employer.

3.2 Employer acknowledges this Contract does not supersede or replace any other obligations to maintain workers' compensation coverage for its employees under Chapter 4123 of the Code.

4. Record Keeping Requirements by Employer

Employer agrees to maintain verifiable, accurate and current records regarding Apprentices covered under this Contract.

4.1 Names, Addresses and Last Four Social Security Numbers of Apprentices – Employer agrees to maintain at all times during the life of the contract a verifiable, accurate, and current list of the names, addresses and last four digits of the Social Security number of Apprentices engaged in Supplemental Instruction offered, conducted, supervised or given by the Employer.

4.2 Remuneration to Apprentices – Employer agrees to document and report all remuneration to Apprentices to the Bureau, with remuneration defined in accordance with IRS, FUTA, ODJFS and Bureau policies on which premium, DWRF Assessment, Administrative Assessment, and Premium Security Deposit owed under this Contract are to be calculated.

4.2.1 Remuneration to be Segregated by Manual Classification – Employer recognizes premiums levied and collected by Administrator under this Contract are dependent upon an accurate reporting of remuneration received by Apprentices according to the manual classifications developed by NCCI. Employer agrees to record remuneration to Apprentices according to NCCI's manual classifications for each Apprentice in accordance with Section 4.2.2 below.

4.2.2 NCCI Manual Classifications – Employer agrees that it will use NCCI classifications in reporting as follows.

Section 4.2.2.1 Instructors and Assistant Instructors – Report remuneration to instructors and assistant instructors providing Apprentices supplemental instruction under NCCI manual classification 8868, College: Professional Employees & Clerical.

Section 4.2.2.2 Apprentices in Classroom Instruction or Workshop Instruction Where No Physical Activity

Is Performed – Report remuneration to Apprentices who receive only classroom instruction or workshop instruction where Apprentices do not participate physically or in hands on environment under NCCI manual classification 9101, College: All Other Employees.

Section 4.2.2.3 Apprentices in On-the-Job Training or Workshop Training Where Physical Activity is Performed – Categorize remuneration to Apprentices who engage in on-the-job training or in workshop instruction where Apprentices participate physically or in a hands on environment under NCCI's manual classifications based on Apprentices documented duties.

Section 4.2.2.4 Apprentices Who Receive Classroom Instruction and Perform Physical Activity – Categorize remuneration to Apprentices who receive Supplemental Instruction under Sections 4.2.2.2 and Section 4.2.2.3 under NCCI's manual classifications on a prorated basis. Administrator and Employer acknowledge this is an exception to NCCI standards.

4.2.3 Number of Apprentices – Employer recognizes premiums levied and collected by Administrator under this contract are dependent upon an accurate reporting of the number of Apprentices of Employer covered under this Contract. Employer states at the time of entering into this Contract, _____ (Number) Apprentices are, or reasonably believes by _____, _____, (Date) are engaged in Supplemental Instruction with Employer, all pursuing the knowledge and skills in the occupational field of _____. When required to report an updated number of Apprentices by the Bureau, the Employer agrees to report at all times an accurate number of Apprentices covered under this Contract. This is for purposes of determining the premium, DWRP assessment, Administrative Assessment and the Premium Security Deposit.

4.3 Release of Apprentice Information to Administrator – Upon a written or verbal demand, the Employer agrees to release any information contained in Sections 4.1 and 4.2 to the Administrator, or the Administrator's agent or designee.

4.4 Four-Year Retention Period – The Employer shall maintain information contained in Sections 4.1 and 4.2 for a minimum of four years for each Apprentice. The four-year retention period commences upon the date each Apprentice completes or otherwise leaves Supplemental Instruction of Employer, or the termination date of this Contract as provided in Section 9, whichever is earlier.

4.5 Administrator's Right to Audit Employer's Records – Employer agrees the Administrator may conduct an audit of the Employer's records at any time with proper notice in accordance with the Bureau policies in effect on the date of notification. This is for reviewing the Employer's reporting and record keeping under the Contract, and whether additional premium, DWRP Assessment, Administrative Assessment or Premium Security Deposit may be due to the Administrator under this Contract.

5. Administrator Agrees to Extend Workers' Compensation Coverage to Apprentices

Administrator agrees to extend the benefits of the workers' compensation law as set forth in Chapter 4123 of the Code to Employer's Apprentices in the event of their injury, occupational disease or death while engaged in Supplemental Instruction offered, conducted, supervised or given by the Employer.

5.1 No Exclusions – Employer and Administrator mutually agree all of the Employer's Apprentices, as amenable under Ohio law, will be provided workers' compensation coverage by the Administrator as provided above, and no Apprentices shall be excluded from the coverage.

6. Monies to be Collected from the Employer

Employer agrees the Administrator shall levy and collect a premium, Premium Security Deposit, DWRP assessment and Administrative Assessment from the Employer in consideration of extending benefits in Section 5. above to Employer's Apprentices. For the premium, DWRP assessment, Administrative Assessment and to the extent required the Premium Security Deposit, Administrator shall levy and collect these monies from the Employer on a periodic basis. This is in accordance with Chapter 4123 of the Code, Chapter 4123 of the Administrative Code and the Bureau policies in effect when the payment is due for these monies.

6.1 Minimum and Maximum Payroll Reporting Limits – Employer and Administrator mutually agree the minimum and maximum payroll reporting limits for premiums to be collected under this Contract will be 50 percent and 150 percent respectively, of the SAWW in the year the premium is due, per week of coverage under this Contract, per Apprentice.

6.2 Minimum Premium to be Collected – Employer agrees the minimum premium to be levied and collected by the Administrator, for each coverage period in which this Contract is in effect, shall be based on 50 percent of the SAWW minimum reporting limits as specified in Section 4.2.4. This is multiplied by the number of Apprentices reported by the Employer for the coverage period, presently the number of Apprentices reported in Section 4.2.3, as applicable to each NCCI classification and rate the Administrator will determine upon review of the application for each period(s) covered by this Contract.

6.3 Employer must pay DWRP and Administrative Assessments for Apprentices – Employer agrees the Administrator shall levy and collect DWRP assessment and Administrative Assessment in addition to any premiums collected by the Administrator under this Contract. This is in accordance with Chapter 4123 of the Code, Chapter 4123 of the Administrative Code and the Bureau policies in effect when the premium, DWRP Assessment and Administrative Assessment are due.

6.4 Premium is Earned When Coverage Extended and Employer is Not Entitled to Refund – Employer and Administrator mutually agree the premium, DWRP Assessment and Administrative Assessment with respect to each Apprentice reported by the Employer shall be deemed earned when the Administrator extends coverage. This is according to the provisions of Section 7 and Section 9.1, and the Administrator shall not refund a premium, DWRP Assessment or Administrative Assessment to the Employer upon the termination of coverage for any cause.

6.5 Employer is Required to Remit Premium Security Deposit – Employer shall remit Premium Security Deposit at the time of the execution of this contract, and the Bureau shall calculate the Premium Security Deposit in accordance with its policies in effect at the time of execution of this Contract.

6.6 Employer to be Billed Semi-Annually by the Administrator – Administrator agrees to submit to the Employer semi annual billings under this Contract for the premium, DWRF Assessment and Administrative Assessment for the Employer's Apprentices. This billing shall be due and payable on or before Feb. 28 (or in the event of a leap year, Feb. 29) and Aug. 31 of each year during which this Contract is in effect.

6.7 Employer Shall Comply with All Premium Laws, Rules and Bureau Policies Under this Contract – Employer agrees to comply with all laws, rules and Bureau policies with regard to reporting NCCI manual classifications, payroll, premium rate setting, and premium payment in effect during the life of this Contract.

7. Commencement Date of the Contract

Administrator shall commence coverage to Employer's Apprentices effective on the latest date of the dates specified in Sections 7.1 through and including Section 7.4. If a date is provided in Section 9.1, that date shall be the commencement date of this Contract, but regardless of whether a date is specified in Section 9.1 or not, Sections 7.1 through and including 7.4 must be fully satisfied before the Contract becomes effective and enforceable.

7.1 The date the Contract is signed by the Administrator

7.2 The date the Contract is signed by the Employer

7.3 The date the Administrator approves an Application for Ohio Workers' Compensation Coverage (U-3) or

7.4 The date the Employer remits a Premium Security Deposit to the Administrator

8. Employer Acknowledges Fraudulent Acts are Prohibited

Employer acknowledges the Administrator considers acts of fraud. The Administrator shall seek all available administrative, civil and criminal remedies against the Employer under Ohio or federal law if fraud is committed.

8.1 Examples of Fraud – Employer acknowledges fraud is committed if the Employer intentionally misrepresents or intentionally conceals from the Administrator: the number of Apprentices to be covered under this Contract; the trade or industry classification of the Apprentices; NCCI manual classifications of the Apprentices; remuneration paid to the Apprentices; or any violation of 2913.48 of the code.

9. Duration of the Contract; Contract Termination.

9.1 Duration of the Contract

Employer and Administrator agree that this Contract shall commence at 12 a.m. Eastern Standard Time, on _____, _____, subject to the provisions in Section 7, and terminate at 11:59 p.m. Eastern Standard Time on _____, _____. If no dates are completed in this Section, Sections 7.1 through 7.4 will govern the commencement date of the Contract, and the Contract shall remain effective until termination occurs as defined in Section 9.2.

9.2 Termination of the Contract – This Contract shall remain effective until termination occurs, which is the earlier of the following two triggering events:

9.2.1 Set Termination Date – The termination date specified in Section 9.1, if any;

9.2.2 Termination by United States certified Mail – Employer or Administrator, in the event a date is specified in Section 9.1, may terminate the Contract at an earlier date by United States certified mail. If no date is specified in Section 9.1, termination of the Contract must be done by United States certified mail. Either Employer or Administrator, to terminate the Contract under this section, must terminate this Contract by notifying the other party in writing, via United States certified mail, of its intention to terminate. The Employer agrees it must send any termination notice of this Contract by the Employer to the Administrator at the following address by United States certified mail:

Ohio Bureau of Workers' Compensation
Policy Processing
30 W. Spring St., 22nd Floor
Columbus, OH 43215

The termination shall take effect under this Section on the date fixed in the written notification, but not prior to receipt of said notification by the other party.

9.3 Fraudulent Act(s) by Employer are Grounds to Terminate Contract by the Administrator – If the Bureau's Adjudicating Committee, or other administrative or judicial body, finds the Employer to have committed fraud in complying with the terms of this Contract, the Administrator may terminate the Contract.

9.4 Employer Fails to Submit Premiums Immediately When Due – If the Employer fails to remit all premiums when due, this Contract shall be considered to be in a lapsed status. The lapsed status shall have the same effect as if the Contract had been terminated on the date premiums were due until such time the Employer remits all premiums, DWRF Assessment, Administrative Assessment, Premium Security Deposit, fines, interest, and the penalties due and payable to the Administrator. This is in accordance with Chapter 4123 of the Code, Chapter 4123 of the Administrative Code and the Bureau policies in effect on the date the lapsed status occurs.

10. Effect of Termination of the Contract

Employer and Administrator mutually agree, upon termination of this contract, the rights, duties and liabilities of each party shall cease except as to: injuries occurring, or occupational diseases having their inception, to Employer's Apprentices prior to the date of termination; and premium, DWRF Assessment, and Administrative Assessment due and payable to the Administrator from the Employer accruing prior to the date of termination.

This includes any premium, DWRP Assessment, or Administrative Assessment due and payable to the Administrator from the Employer because of any unreported, misreported, or unaudited payroll, number of Apprentices reported, or manual classifications.

11. General Provisions

11.1 Amendments or Modifications to Contract

Employer and Administrator mutually agree to make any amendment or modification to this Contract in writing. In addition, the Employer and the Administrator agree to each sign any written amendment, and file a copy of the amendment or modification with the Bureau.

11.2 Dispute Resolution

Employer and Administrator mutually agree to file first any dispute over the provisions of this Contract with the Bureau's Adjudicating Committee.

11.3 Severability

Every provision of this Contract is severable. If any term or provision hereof is illegal, invalid, or unenforceable for any reason, such illegality, invalidity or unenforceability shall not affect the validity, legality or enforceability of the remainder of the Contract.

11.4 Governing Law

This Contract shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Ohio.

11.5 Captions

The captions contained in this Contract are for reference purposes only and are not intended and shall not be deemed to describe, interpret, define or limit the scope, extent or intent of this Contract or any provision thereof.

In witness whereof, the Administrator of the Ohio Bureau of Workers' Compensation, or an appointed agent or designee of the Administrator with authority to enter this Contract, and the Employer, or an officer, member, partner, agent or other designee having authority to enter this Contract, do execute this Contract by affixing their signatures below.
